

ISOS Workshop on Greek and Roman Slavery

30th June

Welcome/Introduction over lunch (Steve Hodkinson, David Lewis) 12:15-13:00

Session 1: Greek Slavery

Christian Amitzbøll Thomsen (Copenhagen)
Slaves and Freedmen in Hellenistic Rhodes 13:00-13:50

Carrie Sawtell (Sheffield)
The Worthy Ones: Identifying Slave Funerary
Monuments in Classical Attica and Other Occurrences of the word *Chrestos 13:50-14:40

Jim Roy (Nottingham)
Text discussion 14:40-15:10

Tea and Coffee 15:10-15:40

Session 2: Roman Slavery

Ulrike Roth
Women, children, families: contextualising Roman slavery 15:40-16:00

Carla Rubiera Cancelas (Asturias)
Mothers, daughters, sisters, partners and... slaves:
seruae and their personal relationships in the epigraphic evidence 16:00-16:50

Peter Morton (Manchester)
Rethinking the leaders of the Second Sicilian 'Slave War' 16:50-17:40

Dinner 19:00

1st July

Session 3: Greek Slavery

Jason Porter (Nottingham)
Strategies of Control: The Rationale of Classical Athenian Slave-Owners in Dictating the Sexual Lives of their Slaves 09:30-10:20

Sara Zanovello (Edinburgh)
Consecration and manumission in Hellenistic Chaeronea:
A case study 10:20-11:10

Tea & coffee 11:10-11:30

David Lewis
Prototypicality and the concept of slavery: a Greek perspective 11:30-12:20

Lunch 12:20-13:00

Session 4: Roman Slavery

Juan Lewis (Manchester) The fluidity of status: collibertus and conservus as interchangeable self-characterisation	13:00-13:50
Jared Jodoin (Edinburgh) As the Greeks and Romans “Did”: Thomas Cobb’s Black Slaves of Antiquity With a Twist of Southern Jurisprudence	13:50-14:40
Tatjana Sandon (Edinburgh) Manumissio matrimonii causa? Patron-freedwoman unions at Rome in the light of the epigraphic evidence	14:40-15:30
Concluding remarks	15:30-16:00